OUR ETERNAL ATONEMENT

The evening of October 4th this year marks the beginning of Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement), the culmination of the "Days of Awe" which begin annually with Yom Teruah (Feast of Trumpets) ten days earlier. According to Mosaic custom, on Yom Kippur the high priest offers two sacrificial goats on behalf of the people. The first goat is slain as a sin offering while the second (known as the "scapegoat") is released into the wilderness symbolically carrying away the sins of the people. This term is used even today to describe a person blamed for a crime or serious violation that they didn't actually commit.

Jews for Jesus describes the difference between Mosaic practice and New Testament fulfillment:

For believers in Yeshua, the scapegoat is a picture of the Messiah, who was sent 'as an atoning sacrifice for our sins' (1 John 4:10). Like the scapegoat, Yeshua receives our iniquities and transgressions and takes them from us; unlike the scapegoat, his sacrifice is good for all time, rather than needing to be repeated from year to year.

Jesus' personal sacrifice on the cross of Calvary nearly 2,000 years ago was GOOD FOR ALL TIME. It doesn't need to be repeated, nor can it be repeated. Jesus won victory over death and grants eternal life to all who believe in Him. Praise God, our sins have been atoned and we no longer carry the burden of sin!

Share the message of Jesus' eternal atonement and be a blessing to someone today!

Thank you

Friends at Ark City 1st Baptist,

Thank you! We are so appreciative of your additional gifts of $1500 and $1350. This is a huge blessing as we head into the new school year. We are moving in freshman today & trusting God to meet new students & help them know Jesus. Thank you for praying & partnering!

Love,
Ryan & Miriam

With my father's passing on September 1st we have received so much love and support and we want to thank you all for coming alongside and helping us through this time. Ark City Christian Academy provided beautiful flowers for the service on September 10th!

Thank you all and God Bless,
Pastor Matt, Lindsay & Greyson

Dear "Prayers and Squares" of A.C. FBC. Thank you for the beautiful quilt. What a wonderful ministry that you have. I'm blessed that it touched me! Also what a blessing to have a whole company of believers praying on my behalf. I am reminded that although I am weak our Savior is strong. Ps 18:2 "The LORD is my rock and my tortures and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my Salvation, my strong hold!"
